Nevada

Tax Advantages

Nevada is the most business-friendly state in the West, offering a very low-regulation environment and a variety of incentives to help qualifying companies make the decision to do business in the state. Both Money and Forbes Magazines have named the Silver State one of the most business-friendly in the country.

Nevada ranks as the 17th best state in the Tax Foundation's 2025 State Business Tax Climate Index, an independent ranking of states in five areas of taxation: corporate taxes; individual income taxes, sales taxes, unemployment insurance taxes, and taxes on property, including residential and commercial property.

Tax Climate Index Ranking By State

A Look at Southern Nevada

Clark County

Clark County, home to the renowned Las Vegas Strip, is the nation's 11th largest county. With over 3.19 million residents and 41.7 million yearly visitors, it offers various services, including the 8th busiest US airport and the state's largest hospital. Mt. Charleston and skiing are just 45 minutes away, with the Red Rock National Conservation Area nearby.

Las Vegas

Las Vegas ranks as the 24th most populous city in the US, the largest in Nevada. It anchors the Las Vegas Valley metro area, being the Mojave Desert's largest city. Celebrated globally as a resort destination, it's known for its vibrant gambling, shopping, dining, entertainment, and nightlife scenes, making the Las Vegas Valley the prime financial, commercial, and cultural hub of Nevada.

North Las Vegas

North Las Vegas experienced a population surge over the past 17 years due to factors like low unemployment, a thriving economy driven largely by its industrial development, freeway loop connections, and record home construction. The city, with around 290,000 residents, hosts Nellis Air Force Base, recognized as the "Home of the Fighter Pilot" and housing the U.S. Air Force Warfare Center, the world's largest and most rigorous advanced air combat training center.

Henderson

As of 2024, Henderson, Nevada, boasting over 350,000 residents, retains its status as Nevada's second-largest city. It continues its legacy of safety, consistently ranking among the nation's top cities. In the most recent FBI Uniform Crime Report, Henderson secured a position in the top 10 safest cities in the United States.
